Training the German Shepherd or any dog includes participation in "hands on" training, with attendance at orientation/education/discussions. This is an integral aspect of obedience training, and is considered part of the Trainees application.

Once you have taken a class, fees are non-refundable. If there are extenuating circumstances, the matter will be presented to the Board of Governors for a decision.

There Are No make-up classes in a session. There are no credits given for missed classes.

AGGRESIVE DOG POLICY:

Any dog that shows open aggression to another dog or person will not be accepted into a Training Class held by NNJGSDC.

Aggressive Behavior described as follows:

- 1- Attacking another dog or person with intent to harm.
- 2- Biting or attempting to bite another dog or person at Any NNJGSDC function.
- 3- Snarling, Growling, Posturing.
- 4- Lunging with attempt to bite another dog or person.
- 5- Similar anti-social behavior where dog does not respond to the handler's efforts to control the situation.

This type of behavior cannot be tolerated in a class setting at any level. It is not fair to other students, or exhibitors to have to worry about the dog next to him attacking his own dog. It is also a liability to NNJGSDC to have dogs with this type of behavior at any NNJGSDC function. Any and All aggressive behavior must be reported to the Obedience Coordinator and Training Hall Director, or one in charge of a NNJGSDC function.

Any dog exhibiting this type of behavior in any class setting can be referred to an outside Trainer who specializes in this type of behavior.

- RE-ENTRY POLICY After a dog has been referred to an outside trainer And has completed a consultation, the outside Trainer and the Obedience Coordinator, and NNJGSDC Obedience Trainer, will confer and determine appropriate placement.

The Trainer will have copies of all completed Training Registrations Forms.

By signing below, you agree and consent that your dog / handler / owner, may be removed from class at any time in the event that, in the trainer/obedience coordinator sole discretion, your dog / handler/owner creates a safety issue for any other dog / handler / owner, or other animal or individual.

You certify that the above information is correct, and that you / we

Will Accept full responsibility / liability for your dog.

Payment must be made in Full at the time of the Beginning of the First class

NNJGSDC strongly recommends that you obtain Liability insurance with comprehensive coverage if you are not already covered. This would be for your own protection as well as the other members of the club
